DR. THE RELIEF OF LUCKNOW. GROVER'S THEATER. IMFORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT!

Mr. Grover takes great pleasure in announcing that he has arranged for the return of the GRAND OPERA COMPANY, recently so very successful here and more recently from the most brilliantly successful seasons in Philadelphia and Boston ever known in those cities.

cities.

In addition to the originally strong company, Mr. Grover is pleased to announce that he has engaged the great Basso Profundo

HERMANNS!

From the Royal Italian Opera, London, and lately the great sensation of the Operatic Circles of New York. It is a well-known fact that this gentleman's connection with Maretzek's Opera Company at the Academy of Music, New York, was the chief cause of the recent unparalleled season there, and that his withdrawal from that company was the occasion of the sudden and unexpected termination of the season. Herr Hermanns has been ENGAGED AT GREAT EXPENSE.

And the Chorus and Orchestra have been materially strengthened. New and superb costumes and properties have been added, in order that

ALL THE GRAND OPERAS may be given entire and complete in every detail.
The company embraces the established favorites:

A Lull in Operations-A Maneuver Foiled-Strict Watch of Prisoners. [Correspondence of the Associated Press.]

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 16 .- After ten days successive fighting the Army of the Potomac was yesterday allowed to rest and recruit for another struggle. Some changes in the position of the troops on either side were made during the day, and on the right a slight skirmish between the pickets oc-

A column of the enemy was seen moving toward our right flank, for the purpose, it is supposed, of attacking our trains; but a portion of the second corps was sent to check them, and their object was defeated. It is almost impossible to discover the position of the enemy, as they keep in and behind the woods, their pickets only being observable. All the prisoners taken during the late battles have been sent hence. Notwithstanding so large a number were conveyed through a hostile country, not one escaped, owing to the strict vigilance of the 68th Penusylvania, Col. Winslow, who acted as their guard to Belle Plain. Our wounded at Belle Plain have suffered terribly on the road. Many had to ride in army wagons, on account of there not being a sufficient number of ambulances, and the roads being in a shocking condition, they were, of course, much bruised on the trip, many dying on the way. Fredericksburg is a general hospital, and full of wounded, but they are now being well cared for; the Sanitary Commission finally getting their supplies down to them. Some thirty prisoners came in during the night.

A day or two since guerrillas on the road to Belle Plain seized several ambulances with wounded, took horses and wagons, and left occupants in the road. A dozen of the party were afterwards captured.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 17.—Yesterday was very quiet along the lines, excepting some skirmishing in the center by Burnside's men, and a few shells thrown by Birney's division, which, however, elicited no reply. The rebel sharpshooters, however, held their ground. During this time a division of the 2d corps was sent to retake possession of two hospitals of ours, which were abandoned on Saturday last with about 500 wounded in

The rebel cavairy had been there and helped themselves to such articles as they wanted, and had calculated on taking all the occupants away to-day as prisoners: but we were just in time, and wagons being sent all were brought away, with tents, supplies, etc. A surgeon left in charge of hospitals at Wilderness battle field reports the capture of 800 of our wounded there, and their transportation to the rebel lines, from which he escaped. He says our wounded are suffering for everything, even bread, and that no surgeons are there to dress their wounds. The roads are improving and movements of importance may soon be expected.

Heavy Engagement in Charleston Harbor - The Monitors and the Ironsides also take a part in it.

NEW YORK, May 17 .- The steamer Fulton, from Port Royal, May 13, has arrived.
General Gordon has been ordered to Florida to relieve the General at present there, denoting that the court-martial on his case had resulted A mass State convention is called at Bean.

ort, S. C. May 17, to select delegales to the Baltimore Convention. A similar movement is reported on foot in Florida. An expedition up May River, S. C., saw a few rebel pickets who retired in a hurry. Another expedition to Pinckney Island found no rebels there. Another expedition to Dafuskie Island captured ninety bales of cotton. The pickets-fires were still burning when our men landed, showing that they had made a The armed steamer transport H. A. Weed was blown up by the explosion of two torpetoes in St. John's river, Florida. The second engineer, a cabin boy, and one other of the crew were lost. The steamer is a total wreck. A large number of other persons were wounded-some severely. The steamer Plato got around in the Savannah river, where a large steamer, supposed to be a ram, came down in the direction of Savannah, but returned after reconnoitering. The Fulton reports, when off Charleston bar, Map 11, a general engagement was going on between our fleet, under Admiral Dahlgren, and the rebel forts and batteries on James and Sullivan's Island. All the monitors appeared to be engaged, also the New Ironsides. Fort Putnam, on Gregg's Island, appeared to be directing her fire principally upon Fort Sumter, which was replied to by Fort Moultrie, on Sullivan's Island, and Battery Simp. kins, on James Island. The content was spirited, and seemed to be as general as one as has transpired since last autumn. Passengers by the Fulton state of engage-ment off Charleston was of terrific character. The batteries on Morris Island were directed against Sumter with the guns of several monitors. Sumter had been effectively repaired, and its fire was thought the strongest which has come from it. The attack was believed to have been made under orders from the Navy Department.

FROM VICKSBURG. Capture of Yazoo City, Miss .- A Messen. ger from Gen'l Lee to Kirby Smith Intercepted-Lee Claims a Victory Over Grant-Decatur and Huntsville, Ala .. Threatened by the Rebels.

ST. Louis, May 17 .- Vicksburg advices to the 10th say that the expedition under Gen'l McArthur, sent out by Gen'l Slocum, had captured Yazoo City with but little resist. A messenger en route to Kirby Smith's army was captured with dispatches from Gen'l Lee to Adjutant General Cooper, saying Grant's army had been repulsed and driven back to-Raids by the rebels on the plantations still continue, and the most flendish brutalities are committed. Even infants were carried off and killed to terrify the women. Gen. Slocum's raiders produced great consternation among the traders. The speculators' stores have been closed, and commerce with the enemy stopped. Many corrupting practices have been corrected. Late advices from Alexandria, Louisiana, indicate that Gen. A. J. Smith will be compelled to march overland to the Mississippi river, fighting his way out. It is reported that Ferrest and Roddy, with ten thousand rebels, were threatening Huntaville and Decatur, Ala., last Saturday. The citizens in the former place had all been ordered to work on the fortifications. VERMONT STATE CONVENTION. President Lincoln Vermont's First Choice.

BURLINGTON, Vt., May 17 .-- The Republican State Convention met to-day. The attendance was large. Every county in the State was represented. Hon, G. W. Grandy was chosen president. The following nominations were made: For Governor, Henry G. Smith; Lientenant-Governor, Hon. P. Dillingham; Treasurer, Hon. J. B. Page. The following were elected delegates at large to the Baltimore Convention: Solomon Foot, E. Walton, A. O. Hunter, and Charles Noyes; substitutes, T. Park, Moses Kettridge, A. Stoddard, and W. C. Smith. A resolution, affirming abiding confidence in the sterling honesty, the common sense, the sagacity, statesmanship, and devoted patriotism of President Lincoln, and declaring him the first choice of the people of Vermont for the next Presidential campaign, was unanimously adopted.

PROBABLE WAR BETWEEN SPAIN AND PERU. There is some important news from Peru. It seems that a special embassador of Spain to Peru not having been able to settle a difficulty Peru not having been able to settle a difficulty between the two governments to his own satisfaction, the Admiral of the Spanish fleet off Peru at once, without any previous declaration of war, seized the Chincha Guano Islands, made prisoners of the Governor and the officers of the islands, and captured a Peruvian transport with its officers. He then even made an attempt to capture the Peruvian squadron in the port of Calloa, but this was fortunately frustrated. frustrated.
